Intro:

Verse 1

When I sink into the dark
You are there to pull me back
When I fill myself with pride
I still hear You calling me

When I want to push You aside
Your Spirit burns within my heart
When I hear You speak my name
All my walls are broken down.

Pre-Chorus

There's not a single grave,
That Your love can't resurrect

Chorus 1

Glorious, my love and light, You are true
Like a storm, You're all around, in my bones
Glorious, Your love and light never fade
So shake the earth, open the sky, save us all

Verse 2

Even in these shadowlands
I can see You through the fog
When darkness seems to suffocate
I will wait for Your return
