Verse 1

Though my strength is failing me
I'm trusting You to lead
My eyes are focused on You Lord

PreChorus

Even if the sun grows cold
And even if the rain falls hard
Even if my heart would break
You will never let me go

Jesus is alive
A splendor in the night
You have been the hope for my heart (Half Chorus 1st Time)
You will never fail
Your power will prevail
To crush the head of death forever

When I can't see far ahead
I will still believe
You're faithfulness will never end

Breakdown

Outro

I know You're here with me
And in faith I see it
A tidal wave of grace
Overwhelms this heartache
You have stirred my soul to life
By the strength of Your love
And I'm lost inside the wake
Of You
Forever I am Yours
And I always will be
Forever I will live
For You and only ever You
